Terms & Conditions

This disclosure is pursuant to the Federal Electronics Funds Transfer Regulation. Use of Virtual Branch and/or E-Statements is subject to the regulations covering the rights and liabilities of the user. If privileges are abused as determined by Dakota Plains Credit Union, the credit union has the right to discontinue use of these products. By submitting this form, I authorize Dakota Plains Credit Union to deliver my account information electronically. I understand that all statement information will be compressed, encrypted, and password-protected for my security. I also understand that I may receive additional messages from the credit union. I understand that I am responsible to alert the credit union of any changes in my e-mail address. Your consent for Virtual Branch and/or E-Statements applies to your account from now on, unless you contact the credit union to do otherwise. You always have the right to receive your account information on paper. If you wish to discontinue receiving your account information electronically, please contact the credit union. Virtual Branch system requirements include: a computer with at least a 486 processor, a modem with at least 28.8 Kbps, internet access and one of our two supported browsers, either Netscape Navigator 4.7 or Microsoft Internet Explorer 5.0 or higher. E-Statements system requirements include: internet access and the free Adobe Acrobat Reader, Acrobat Reader can be downloaded free from their respective website. Virtual Branch requires a security code. The safeguarding of my security code is solely my responsibility. If I allow anyone access to my security code, whether they are an authorized signer on my account or not, I will not hold DPCU liable for the transactions that take place as a result of someone else using my security code. I am responsible for all transactions to my account by use of Virtual Branch.

We must have your signature on this form to complete the enrollment process.
